Announcement/Public Notice

Subject: Right Click Project is Now Accepting Web Development Projects

The Right Click Project invites applications from individuals, non-profit organisations and community-based organisations who are working for the welfare of the society and environment and who are looking for help and support with Web Development and/or the following ICT related tasks:

- e-Documentation of Projects and Activities, Photography & Video Documentation
- Designing and Creating Web-page, Website and/or Web-App
- Management of Domain Name and Web-hosting
- Creating and Managing Social Media Networks/Handles
- Skill Building Module 1: Training of Organisational Staff on Basic Use of Computer and Internet for Organisational Purpose
- Skill Building Module 2: Training of Organisational Staff for maintaining Web-page or Website and/or Social Media Channels
- Web and Social Media Outreach Consultancy

The above mentioned services are provided at a no profit no loss basis to all registered non-profit organisations (Societies/Trusts/Non-Profit Companies) registered in India. The services may also be extended to individuals working to further the cause of social welfare and environmental protection and social welfare.

Interested organisations and individuals can visit the Right Click Project micro website (http://rightclick.delhigreens.com) or can simply send an email to rightclick@delhigreens.org detailing your requirement.

The Management
Delhi Greens