
MISSING

PINK-HEADED DUCK

Rhodonessa caryophyllacea

Once found in Gangetic plains of India, Bangladesh and in Myanmar.

This species of duck has not been spotted since 1950. It is considered Critically Endangered though some suggest it may have gone Extinct.

We DO NOT KNOW what made it disappear.

Wildlife: Let us NOT encroach on their habitat.

Save Wildlife, Save Humanity - Delhi Greens
