- Protect and secure above mentioned official social media accounts from unauthorised access or misuse.
- Monitor online platforms in accordance with applicable laws, platform policies and available resources.

Disclaimer Regarding User-Generated Content

The public is hereby informed that most social networking and social media platforms allow users to independently post comments, reactions, likes, shares, reposts, tags, messages, reviews and other forms of interaction. Accordingly, Delhi Greens NGO does not endorse, verify, approve, control or assume responsibility for any content generated, posted, uploaded, shared, liked, commented upon, or otherwise communicated by third-party users of such platforms on the above mentioned social media handles.

Any views or opinions expressed by users, followers, subscribers, commenters or other third parties are solely those of the respective individuals and do not necessarily reflect the views, policies, positions or objectives of Delhi Greens NGO. Delhi Greens NGO reserves the right, where permitted by the relevant platform and applicable law to remove, report, hide, restrict or moderate content that it considers inappropriate, unlawful, abusive, misleading, spam-related or inconsistent with the objectives and values of the organisation. However, the exercise or non-exercise of such moderation rights shall not be construed as acceptance of responsibility for user-generated content by the NGO.

Without limitation, Delhi Greens NGO shall not be liable or responsible for user generated content, viz.

- Comments, replies, reviews, opinions, or statements made by users on above mentioned social URLs;
- Likes, reactions, shares, reposts or endorsements by third parties;
- User-generated photographs, videos, links or other materials;
- Content that may be inaccurate, misleading, offensive, defamatory, unlawful or otherwise objectionable;
- Any interaction between users occurring on or through such social media platforms.

Disclaimer Regarding Social Network Website Advertisements and Third-Party Promotional Content

Users are further advised that social media platforms and online networking services are operated by independent third-party companies that may display advertisements, sponsored content, promotional messages, suggested posts, recommended accounts or other forms of commercial communications to users. Delhi Greens NGO has no ownership, control, influence or authority over such advertisements, sponsored content, targeting mechanisms, recommendation algorithms or promotional materials displayed by these platforms. The appearance of any advertisement, sponsored post, promoted account, commercial message or third-party content on or alongside Delhi Greens NGO's social media profiles shall not be construed as an endorsement, recommendation, approval, partnership or association with Delhi Greens NGO unless expressly stated otherwise by the organisation.

Delhi Greens NGO neither determines nor regulates:

- which advertisements are displayed to individual users;
- the frequency or placement of advertisements;
- the data used by social media companies for advertising purposes;
- user-targeting practices employed by social media platforms;
- sponsored content or promotional recommendations generated by platform algorithms; or
- commercial activities conducted by third parties through such platforms.

Users are solely responsible for exercising appropriate caution while interacting with advertisements, sponsored content, external links, promotions and commercial offers appearing on social media platforms. Users are encouraged to familiarize themselves with and comply with the terms of service, privacy policies, community standards, security settings and other applicable rules of the respective social media platforms they use. Delhi Greens NGO shall not be liable for any loss, damage, privacy breach, fraud, identity theft, misinformation or other consequences arising from a user's interaction with advertisements, sponsored content, third-party services or other materials beyond the organisation's control.

General Advisory Regarding Social Media Use

Delhi Greens NGO recognises the value of social media as a tool for communication, education, awareness, and public engagement. However, users should be aware that social media platforms may also present certain risks and challenges.

The risks and challenges of social media use may include, among other things:

- The circulation of inaccurate or misleading unverified information;
- The creation and spread of fake news and misinformation;
- Impersonation, fake profiles and fraudulent activities;
- Manipulative or deceptive online content;
- Harassment, abuse or inappropriate conduct by users;
- Privacy and data protection concerns; and
- Addiction to social media networks websites & apps.

Users are encouraged to independently verify information obtained through social media before relying upon it or sharing it further. Information encountered on social media should, wherever possible, be cross-checked against reliable, authoritative and independent sources.

We encourage responsible, lawful and informed use of social media. All users are informed that they remain responsible for their own online activities, decisions, interactions and compliance with applicable laws and platform policies.

Important Note: The mere presence of content, comments, advertisements, links, recommendations, user interactions or third-party materials on any social media platform associated with Delhi Greens NGO shall not be interpreted as approval, verification, endorsement or acceptance by Delhi Greens NGO. Users access and use such platforms at their own discretion and risk.
